DROP-IN CENTER

The Homeless Youth Center, also known as the Drop-In Center, was created in 1995 with the help of the Salt Lake County Division of Youth Services, Travelers Aid Society of Utah, and Utah Issues to address the needs of homeless youth ages 15 to 22. In March 2000, Volunteers of America, Utah adopted the center where youth are provided a safe place to receive support and resources they need. The center welcomes up to 60 youth each weekday.
